Health Self-Management Applications in the Workplace

Multidisciplinary studies on worker behaviour and autonomy

Anne Bonvanie-Lenferink

“Would you tell me, please, which way I ought to go from here?”
“That depends a good deal on where you want to get to,” said the Cat.
“I don’t much care where—” said Alice.
“Then it doesn’t matter which way you go,” said the Cat.
“—so long as I get somewhere,” Alice added as an explanation.
“Oh, you’re sure to do that,” said the Cat, “if you only walk long enough.”

Chapter 3: Health Self-Management Applications in the Work Environment: the effects on Employee Autonomy61

Abstract.....62

Introduction.....63

Theoretical Framework.....66

 HSMAs and perceived autonomy in the self-regulation of health-related behaviour66

 The moderating role of focus of feedback69

 The moderating role of health70

 Health autonomy at work and at home72

Methods.....73

 Design, sample, and procedure.....73

 HSMA intervention and manipulation of feedback focus.....76

 Measures.....77

 Statistical analyses78

 Second stage of the study: interviews79

Results.....80

 Exploratory factor Analyses80

 Equivalence of experimental feedback groups80

 Descriptive statistics82

 Hypothesis Testing82

 BMI, performance feedback, and Work Health Autonomy88

 BMI, developmental feedback, and Home Health Autonomy91

Discussion94
