After publication of the paper, it was brought to our attention that the initial work on peptide deformylase engineering and purification reported in the paper was supervised and executed by Dr. A.F. Volker Wagner. The corrected author and affiliation lines appear above.

Furthermore, Sabine Schultz (Biochemie-Zentrum der Universität Heidelberg, Im Neuenheimer Feld 328, 69120 Heidelberg, Germany) is kindly acknowledged for her help with site-directed mutagenesis of the def gene and preliminary characterisation of engineered PDF variants.
