Acknowledgments

When I started working on my PhD, I was unaware of what lay ahead. Looking back now, I see the process as a constant challenge that involved a lot of effort and hard work. The process helped me develop myself personally and professionally in ways that I could not have imagined. I have learned that patience and hard work always win. I feel satisfied and it gives me a sense of great accomplishment now that it is done and that the book has been approved. During these past few years, I have rubbed shoulders with many great individuals. I use the following paragraphs to thank them.

First of all, I am grateful to my supervisors Paula van Veen-Dirks and Ed Vosselman. Paula I am glad that I wrote this thesis under your supervision. I am thankful to you for your consistent encouragement and continuous support and guidance throughout the research and thesis writing process. I now know you as skillful, reliable and as a trustworthy coach who is extremely good with all the different aspects of research. I have learned a lot from you. Ed for the last couple of years the 2009 paper that you wrote with Jeltje van der Meer-Kooistra was on my table and every now and then I had to consult it. I owe the knowledge created in chapters three and four to this paper. I hope that my thesis is a worthy addition to the literature stream. Jeltje, I am thankful to you for writing the 2009 paper with Ed. I benefitted a lot from this paper. I am also thankful to you for our various meetings. Whenever I needed a clarification you were there for me. Thanks a lot.

I am also thankful to Hans van der Bij for his support with path models. Whenever I came across a challenge related to these models, I knew who could help. In you I found a teacher who is always smiling and is always positive. Manda Broekhuis and Klaas Arjen I am grateful to you both for being a co-author with my first attempt to write a complete article. The process taught me a lot and I hope I can use the knowledge to my and to your advantage in the future. Next, I am thankful to members of the assessment committee, Mahmoud Ezzamel, Ivo De Loo and Pieter Jansen for their efforts and valuable feedback. I also want to thank Rina Koning, Hanneke Tamling and the rest of the staff working for the secretariat of the SOM research school for their support and invaluable service.

I am thankful to all my friends and colleagues. Among them Coen Groen (deceased) for helping me out when things were tough. The Pakistani community in Groningen especially Atiqa, Shan, Nazim, Naveed, Adnan, Imran, Kashif, Mobeen, Abdul Wahab, Asif, Abdul Salam, Iftikhar and Sardar Hameed. The many colleagues I met at Nijmegen and Groningen including Reinald, Kaleem, Roeland, Koos, Geert, Yasemin, Irene, Kristina, Sandra, Sakshi, Dennis, Teye, Derk-Jan, Carel, Reggy, Henk, Ben, Rouven, Bram, Shuo, Martijn, Vlad, Andrea, Simona and others. And Finally, the many friends at Zernike Cricket Club including Vidur, Pulkesh, Hemat and many others.

Finally, I want to dedicate this thesis to the personalities whose thought alone gave me energy to keep going, even when I was going through tough times. I dedicate this thesis to my parents Ajaz Ahmed Abbasi and Nusrat Bibi; my siblings Mohib, Rashda and Naveed; and Sobia, and my daughters Fatima, Maryam and Muneeba. Kids you are the best children that I could have ever wished for. God bless you all.
