Acknowledgements

I am pleased to have the opportunity to express my gratitude to those precious people who have contributed to this thesis.

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all the patients who participated in this study. This project would have been unthinkable without their contribution.

From the Netherlands, University Medical Centre Groningen, I would like to thank

Dr. Jitse P. van Dijk, my copromotor, for the opportunity he gave me for writing this thesis, his indispensable involvement, his support and the faith he has shown in its completion.

Prof Dr Wim J.A. van den Heuvel, my promotor, for his interest in the project, his constructive remarks and his invaluable suggestions for improving the manuscript.

The Promotion Board, Prof. Dr. Martin H. van Rijswijk, Prof. Dr. Johan W. Groothoff, and Prof. Dr. Theo P.B.M. Suurmeijer for their critical questions and detailed comments on the text.

I would like to thank the colleagues from the EURIDISS teams, whom I have had the opportunity to meet at EURIDISS meetings all over Europe. In addition to those already mentioned, I had a pleasure to discuss the results of this study with Prof. Dr. Francis Guillemin from France, Prof. Dr. Milard Waltz from Germany, and Dr. Boudien Krol, Prof. Dr. Robbert Sanderman and Prof. Dr. Ruud Kempen from the Netherlands.

In Groningen there are many who from “behind the scenes” have encouraged and supported my work, and I wish to thank them: Annemieke Brouwers, Truus Ittersum-Gritter, Dr. Berry Middel, Ria Molanus, Willemijn Roggen MSc and Dr. Hilde Uytterschaut. I am very pleased to know them all.

From the Netherlands I am especially grateful to Roy E. Stewart MSc for his substantial contribution on statistics and his positive and enthusiastic support. I am also indebted to him as my paranymph for his practical help with arranging many things related to the defense of this thesis.

From Slovakia I would like to express my gratitude to my former colleagues at the Department of Social Medicine, Medical Faculty, University of PJ Safarik, Kosice and especially to Dr. Zuzana Katreniakova, Dr. Andrea Geckova and Dr. Marcel Pudelsky. It was a pleasure and great fun to work with them.

I wish to thank my closest colleagues from the Slovak EURIDISS team Assoc. Prof. Angela Szilasiova and Dr. Zelmira Macejova for inspiring moments. I also wish to thank the EURIDISS research assistants and especially Dr. Dana Rovnakova for her help in data collection, and the following rheumatologists from Kosice and Presov regions: Dr. Katarina Gombosova, Dr. Karol Kohler, Dr. Anna Schlosserova and Dr. Maria Zborovjanova for their co-operation.

My deep gratitude goes to the former deans of the Medical Faculty Assoc. Prof. Frantisek Longauer and Assoc. Prof. Ladislav Mirossay for their essential support for this international project.

I am very grateful also to Assoc. Prof. Ivan Zezula and Assoc. Prof. Jan Ferjencik for their stimulating and inspiring comments on statistics and methodology.

Furthermore, I wish to thank Andrew J. Billingham for his skills in proof-reading the manuscript and polishing up the English and Claudia Jutkova for the attractive design of this book.

I am very grateful to my colleagues at my new workplace, the Institute of Social Sciences, Faculty of Science, University of PJ Safarik for creating a very stimulating environment for me to continue in my scientific career. I especially thank Assoc. Prof. Pavol Sovak, the Dean of the Faculty of Science, Assoc. Prof. Olga Orosova, Head of the Institute of Social Sciences; and furthermore all KISH members: Adriana Cverckova MD, Tatiana Dubayova MSc, Miriam Gavelova MD, Eva Havlikova MD, Maria Humenikova MSc, Martina Krokavcova MSc, Ivana Majerova MBA, Jaroslav Rosenberger MD, Ferdinand Salonna MSc, Maria Sarkova MSc, Maria Sleskova MSc, Zuzana Skodova MSc and Helena Vargova MD.

Last but not least I am very thankful to my wonderful family and friends for their encouragement. Special thanks I owe to my husband Viliam for his patience, support and love.
