

University of Groningen

The maintenance of variation in avian personality

Fučíková, Eva

IMPORTANT NOTE: You are advised to consult the publisher's version (publisher's PDF) if you wish to cite from it. Please check the document version below.

Document Version

Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Publication date:

2011

Link to publication in University of Groningen/UMCG research database

Citation for published version (APA):

Fučíková, E. (2011). The maintenance of variation in avian personality: The role of the social environment. [Thesis fully internal (DIV), University of Groningen]. [s.n.].

Copyright

Other than for strictly personal use, it is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

The publication may also be distributed here under the terms of Article 25fa of the Dutch Copyright Act, indicated by the "Taverne" license. More information can be found on the University of Groningen website: <https://www.rug.nl/library/open-access/self-archiving-pure/taverne-amendment>.

Take-down policy

If you believe that this document breaches copyright please contact us providing details, and we will remove access to the work immediately and investigate your claim.

Downloaded from the University of Groningen/UMCG research database (Pure): <http://www.rug.nl/research/portal>. For technical reasons the number of authors shown on this cover page is limited to 10 maximum.

Acknowledgments

I always wanted to travel and meet new people. In my dreams were mountainous countries with wild rivers and deep forests. I guess that this is the reason why I ended up for my PhD in the Netherlands. The fate or someone up there can be very ironical.

However, I must admit that this was one of the greatest crazy things which I have ever done. I do not have only this book as a result of my PhD studies. My stay in the Netherlands gave me very much in both, my professional and private life. I learned much about myself and my borders because it was quite hard sometimes. I acknowledged science with its cons and mins. I acknowledged the real meaning of the words “cultural differences”. I found friends from whole world. I could travel to their countries through the talking with them and I have very good tips where to go for my mountains, rivers and forests now. And what is funny I also found my Czech boyfriend during my stay in the Netherlands.

This thesis was financed by the Netherlands Institute of Ecology (NIOO). I am grateful to ‘Het Geldersch Landschap’ for permission to work on their property. Permission for behavioural tests was granted by the legal committee “KNAW Dier Experimenten Commissie (DEC-KNAW).

First of all I want to thank my supervisors Kees van Oers and Piet Drent who guided me over all the difficulties of the PhD.-student life to the final form of this book. Thank you for patience, time and nerves you gave me. Thank you for the will to understand my activities which sometimes had to seem strange to you.

Marcel Visser was my great promoter and advisor.

This work would be impossible to do without the main person in the field and test room - Piet de Goede. I think that Piet has a very appropriate name (Piet the Good), because he is good at everything from simple tasks through organisation to the diplomacy. Thank you, Piet.

It would be also impossible to run all the tests without people in the aviaries that take care for the birds, Marylou Aaldering, Floor Petit, Janneke Venhorst and Nadine Smits.

I am sorry to all the birds which I had to stress for my experiments. Thank you for help.

People from the reading committee Andy Sih, Joost Tinbergen and Eric Matthysen gave me very useful feedback and spent time with my thesis.

A very important part of my thesis was done in GIS. I am very grateful to Leonard Holleman, Michal Schneider, and Melina de Koning who spent many hours with the map of my area and were trying to create as realistic territories as possible.

My great friend Megan Dickens checked English in the whole thesis and had very good questions about the chapters. Thank you for your time and helpfulness.

I thank all the people in the department that they supported this study with important ideas. I could always come to you, ask you for help and you had always time for me. Piet Drent, Kees van Oers, Piet de Goede, Marcel Visser, Sonja Schaper, Margriet van Ash, Kate Lessels, Mark Naguib, Louis Vernooij, Arie van Noordwijk, Luc te Marvelde, Philipp Sprau, Samuel Caro, Mariolijn Lof, Ivan de la Hera, Marylou Aaldering, Floor Petit and Janneke Venhorst, thank you for the nice atmosphere which I miss.

I thank Nadine Smits and Marlies Heesen and other students for general assistance with testing.

Joe Waas helped me greatly with my future plans.

The people who do not work in science, but are very important for fighting scientists with the bureaucracy are the secretaries. I want especially thank Gerda who was always willing to help me with the unemployment office and was calming me down after another disaster. Elly and Gerrie helped me as well. After I moved to the Germany I had some problems with the German bureaucracy and I want to thank Susanne Teipel for solving my problems in Germany.

My great friends who I have met during long five years at the NIOO will stay in my heart for the whole life. Sonja, Fernando and Francesca, Susanne, Monika, Megan and Lucas, Sam, Fran, Francisco, Olja, Pascaline and Glen, Remy, Margriet, Floor, Katrin and Stefan, Taia, Elly, Ciska, Tim, Emilia, Remy, both Anias, Anita and others – I am looking forward to see you again in any part of the world and go for some crazy trip again!

I cannot forget my friends who I met in Wageningen and our parties with them.

Guyes from the cooking group fed me with their great meals and funny ideas in wonderful international combinations. Asia, Jimmy, Sijing, Jieling and Carolina, guyes I am looking forward to cook and do crazy things with you again.

Great musicians Guillermo, Joebel, Jed and Alejandro, I never forget our musical evenings with the mixture of the South American, English and Czech songs.

One cannot forget the Czech mafia coming and leaving Wageningen. Eliška, Markéta, Šárka, Hanka and Honza, Evča, Radim and Zbyněk shared same problems with the cultural differences and were helping me with Czech ironical humour.

Silvia, Huda and Lowela were my neighbours that became great friends after a short while.

I want to thank my housemates from the guesthouse who suffered my musical evenings and crazy ideas – Iván, Carolina, Floris, Timur, Andrej, Vanessa, Almudena, Miša and Olaf. I hope that you enjoyed as much as I did.

I want also to thank all the people from Bielefeld for a great time spent there. Anja and Fritz, thank you for the great working collective. Anja, Niko, Agi, Ulo, Babsi, Tine, Birte, Nayden, Toby, Jana and Elke, thanks for your friendship and help.

Radoslávěk mi pomáhal s celou disertační prací a přežitím PhD studií po dlouhé čtyři roky. Svoji obětavostí a častým dojížděním z Čech do Holandska, svým humorem a pozitivním přístupem k životu mi dodával energii a šanci zažít spoustu bláznivých situací. Dík za trpělivost.

Děkuji celé své rodině za podporu a trpělivost. Mami, tati, Vlad'ko a babičko, doufám, že jsem se vám mohla alespoň trochu odměnit výlety do Holandska a poznáváním způsobu života v téhle zemi. Radoslávčovým rodičům děkuju za pochopení, když jsem na řídkých návštěvách Lanškrouna místo povídání trávila dny a večery se svou disertační prací a byla stále unavená.

Všichni moji kamarádi v Čechách, oceňuju že jste si dokázali najít čas ve vašem nabitém programu zrovna v té době, kdy jsem byla v Čechách. Všem, kteří se za mnou přijeli podívat do Holandska děkuju za návštěvu. Chci vám všem poděkovat, že i když jsme se vídali tak zřídka a prožívali „vztah na dálku“, jsme stále výborní kamarádi.

I want to thank all the people from NIOO for great atmosphere and all the actions we have done during my stay.