CV

Juliette R. de Wit

Juliette Renée de Wit (1991) was born in Voorburg, the Netherlands. She obtained her BSc degree in Economics in 2012 at the University of Maastricht (8,0 GPA), her BA degree in Philosophy in 2014 at the Catholic University of Leuven (cum laude), and her MSc degree in Economics and Business (Research) in 2016 at the University of Groningen (cum laude). During her economics bachelor, De Wit also studied six months at the Universidad de Buenos Aires in Argentina.

In 2016 De Wit started a PhD in Economics at the University of Groningen under the supervision of prof. B. P. de Bruin, prof. S. Beugelsdijk, and dr. C. Lisciandra. The current thesis is the end result. The first chapter of the thesis (co-authored by dr. C. Lisciandra) is published in Economics and Philosophy (2021). In addition to the time spent at the University of Groningen, De Wit also worked as a visiting researcher at the Netherlands Institute for Social Research where she co-authored two chapters of the policy report Denkend aan Nederland [Thinking of the Netherlands]. During her PhD, De Wit also published (as co-author to F. Giesenow and prof. dr. J. de Haan) in The European Journal of Political Economy (2020).

During her PhD, De Wit has taught courses in business ethics, macro- and microeconomics, as well as supervised bachelor and master thesis students in Economics and (International) Business. As of February 2020, De Wit is employed as a Lecturer at the departments of Economics, Econometrics and Finance and Global Economics and Management at the Faculty of Economics and Business of the University of Groningen.
