Acknowledgements

First of all, I thank my supervisor Wesley for all his kind support and guidance during the last few years. Dear Wesley, you have always supported me! Thank you for your encouragement and the words of hope. I always admire your intuitive method of thinking, your sharpness, and your technical expertise. I am very happy that I had a supervisor like you!

A special debt is owed to the reading committee members Prof. Steven Bell, Prof. Gerard Roelfes, and Prof. Sabeth Verpoorte for their reading of this dissertation and constructive comments.

I thank Hans de Boer for sharing his expertise in the various steps throughout my PhD. Dear Hans, thank you for the many discussions, helping me with learning Dutch, and translating the summary of my thesis. I thank Ronald Hage for discussions during the many meetings we had together. Dear Ronald, it was a great honor to collaborate with you in this project.

I thank Nikki for the fruitful collaboration during her stay in Groningen. A Nikki, a chara, gur a mile maith agat. Is duine go-h'alainn tu agus ba mhaith liom ag obair leat aris! Thank you Lisa for your contribution to chapter 3.

The funding of this project was provided by STW, and I thank very much the STW user committee members, Ronald Hage, Paul Alsters, Achim Lienke, James Day, Andrew Dennis, Sandra Rens van der Lee and our program officer Monique Wiegel, for the useful feedback they provided me during the progress meetings.

I thank Jia jia and Davide for being my friends and paranymphs and accompanying me in one of the important days of my life.

RuG has been a pleasant and productive place to work, thanks to the expert faculty members and colleagues. I thank you all, especially the Brownies for all the fun and good memories we have collected!

I also want to thank all my friends who made my social life in Groningen. My dear Nima, thank you for introducing me to Wesley, and thanks a lot for your endless support. Finally, I would like to thank my loving parents and family who have always encouraged and supported me. Thank you and I will miss you all!
