Acknowledgements

Accomplishing the PhD thesis is one giant step in my life. Looking back, it is a long but not lonely journey! Now, it is the time to express my deep appreciation to you all who make my way here.

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my mentor Prof. Arnold J. M. Driessen. Thank you for providing me the opportunity to do my PhD in the Molecular Microbiology group. We only communicated by email before I coming to the Netherlands. It is your trust that stimulates me to do better and achieve more. Without your support, the thesis could not be finished so fast. Your rigorous thinking attitude, patience and nice smile will always encourage and inspire me!

My sincere thank goes to Jeanine and Dirk-Jan. Jeanine, you are a wonderful supervisor! Thank you for your assistance in designing projects, sharing expertise of membrane proteins and correcting my manuscripts. Dirk-Jan, without your powerful protocols, I could not get along well with my first project on Bacillus subtilis.

Alexej, thank you for helping me out when I was struggling with FCS. Joost, thank you for constructing those plasmids, which enabled me to skip the time-consuming step and finished the project faster.

Anne-Bart and Fabiola, thank you for willing to be my paranimfs. Anne-Bart, I really appreciate your contributions to the thesis. You altered those “iceburg” to me into “a small piece of cake” in the past two years! Thank you for bringing our office more “oxygen”. Wish our fancy Christmas tree always keep green. Fabiola, thank you for accompanying me to the destination. We always listened to each other, cheered up and encouraged each other. I believe you will do a better job!

My deep gratitude also goes to the thesis assessment committee: Prof. O. P. Kuipers, Prof. J.M. van Dijk, Prof. L. Hamoen. Thank you for contributing your precious time to the thesis and approve it for the public defense.

I would like to thank Andy and Yang. Your PhD defenses made me believe that I can do! Jan peter, thank you for sharing experience on editing the thesis and arranging PhD defense. Irfan, Iullia, Antonella, Sabrina and Marten, really appreciate those inspiring talks with you. Jeroen and Susan, thank you for creating such a cozy office environment. Bea and Manon, thank you for helping me with so many trivial matters. Janny, Greetje and Loes, thank you for keeping our lab tidy. Juke, thank you for tutoring me how to deal with elabinventory. Ana and Ewa, thank you for encouraging me to speak out my thoughts. Sasha, Hyun Y., Ciprian, Danae, Annarita, Reto, Fernando, André, Elke, Zófia, Yvonne, Elke, Gosia, Javier, Intan, Lito, Ilija, Samata, thank you all for building such a pleasant working environment!

My deep appreciation now go to my dear Chinese friends in the Netherlands. Special thanks go to Nana and Qiuyan, you are like my family. I will never forget how you stood by me to get through the dark period. Wenjun & Tao, Wenxuan, Rongrong, thank you for all those concerns to me. Min & Xuewen, thank you for taking CV photos for me. Huifang, Xiangfeng, Yuxiang, Feng, Pei, thank you for creating so many beautiful moments in the yellow building. Lei, Xiaoyun, Youtao, Guowei, Honghao, Ming, Zhiyuan, He & Jiawei, Linlin & Jintao, Xiaoqong & Wei, Jingyi & Shuo, thank you for those wonderful Chinese get-togethers. My thanks also go to Liang, Dongdong, Ranran, Xiaoguang, Miaozi, Pu, Jinfeng, Siwen, and other hepful people. You all made my life so memorable here.

I would like to thank Prof. Qingsheng Qi, Quanfeng Liang & my former colleagues in the domestic metabolic engineering group, for the communication and support during my PhD.

Last but not least, I would like to express my deepest appreciation to my dear family! Being back with them is my biggest motivation to finish the thesis. Mom and Dad, you are great parents! Without your understanding, support and love, I would never have achieved what I possess now! My dear sisters and brother, thank you for taking care our parents during my study abroad, which enabled me to focus on my research. Thank you, my little cute nephews and nieces, for inputing my grow-up life so many lovely moments. Finally, I must thank my dearest husband, who is the pillar of my strength. Thank you for everthing your have done for me! Darling, wihtout my accompan, I know how much you have put up with in the past three years. It is your continuous love, trust, understanding, encouragement and support that make me hold out until the end!
