Acknowledgements

The idea of starting to write this thesis is connected with the start of a friendship that began with the help of statistical data. I am glad that I took it on, even if it cost a great deal of strength. I would like to use this space to express my gratitude to all the people in my life who were there for me and were a part of the process during which this thesis came to life.

I would like to thank to all of the people at the University Medical Centre Groningen I met during my stays there:

- Prof. Johan W. Groothoff, my promotor, for his supervision, excellent guidance and great support and encouragement during my work on our articles.
- Assoc. Prof. Jitse P. van Dijk, my co-promotor, for his friendly, caring attitude and the support he invested in me and our international cooperation. I also thank him for his help and support in every way; he knows what I went through during this time, and he was always there for me, so a great many thanks for that.
- Prof. Sijmen Reijneveld and Roy Stewart for their help with complicated statistical analyses and valuable advice regarding our articles.

I am also very thankful to many people in Slovakia, particularly from Safarik University in Kosice, especially to:

- Assoc. Prof. Andrea Madarasová Gecková, both my co-promotor and friend, for the opportunity to enter into this research, for her support at all times, her consultations in various beautiful places (from Turňa to Barcelona) and also for extending my view and my professional development.
- Prof. Dr. Leonard Siegfried, Dean of the Medical Faculty of P.J. Safarik University in Kosice, for supporting the Graduate School Kosice Institute for Society and Health and enabling this collaboration between the University of Groningen and P.J. Safarik University.
- Martina Súkeníková, Ivana Borysová, Nikol Hendrichovská and Jarmila Frištková for all of their hard administrative and organisational work that was too complicated for me to handle. Thanks to their care, I was able to focus on my job. Special thanks to Martinka for her never-ending optimism and fantastic personal support.
- Zuzana Dankulincová-Veselská, Marika Sarková, Martina Behanová, Peter Kolarčík and all of my other colleagues who helped me in my academic life.
- Assoc. Prof. Ivan Žežula for his help with statistics.
- Andy Billingham and David McLean for proofreading my manuscripts and improving my English along the way.

I would also like to thank people from the Kosice Self-governing Region in Kosice for supporting my research, especially the Deputy to the Director and Head of our department, Imrich Fülöp, and to my colleague and friend Lucia Byšická for her help with creating maps and helpful advice.

My thanks also go to Boris Vaňo from the Demographic Research Centre and Gabika Haasová from the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic for their help with the collection of statistical data, and to Jana Kollárová from the Regional Public Health Authority for her expert advice and willingness to help.

I would also like to thank the members of the Review Committee, Prof. Dr. W.L.J.M. Devillé, Prof. Dr. S.A. Reijneveld and Prof. Dr. D. Strijker, for their helpful comments on my thesis.

Finally, I would like to thank to the most important people in my life – my family – because without them none of this would have been possible. My thank goes to:

- my parents and my near family; Mamka a ocko, patrí Vám veľké ďakujem za lásku čo mi dávate, za podporu, ktorú vo Vás mám, za to, že ste tu vždy pre mňa. Ľúbim Vás. Rovnako ďakujem svojim súrodencom Hanke, Duškovi a Radkovi, ich rodinkám a deťom, za podporu a veselé okamihy na rozveselenie tvorivej vedeckej mysle.
- my husband's parents; Mami a oci, ste mojimi druhými rodičmi a rovnako veľkou oporou ako moji vlastní, ďakujem Vám za všetko čo pre mňa robíte, mám Vás veľmi rada.
- my husband and our children; Maťko, Miška a Matejko, ste moje najväčšie lásky, ste všetko čo mám a pre čo sa oplatí žiť. Ďakujem za pomoc, neustálu podporu, za to, že ste mi vždy verili, a že ste to so mnou celý ten čas vydržali :) Ľúbim Vás nado všetko...

About the author

Katarína Rosičová was born in Bardejov, Slovak Republic, on June 5th, 1978. She graduated in May of 2001 from Comenius University in Bratislava with a master degree in Geography and Cartography, specialization in Demography and Demogeography. Her Master thesis was entitled “The formation of family in Slovakia during the second demographic transition”. While still a student, she began to contribute her expertise to the projects of International Centre for Family in Bratislava (Slovakia). The output of this cooperation is a monograph entitled “Diversity of the Demographic Development in Europe” (ISBN 80-967419-6-9). After completing her university studies, she started working as an expert for statistical and demographical analyses at the Kosice Self-governing Region, Department of Regional Development, Land-use Planning and Project Implementation. During this time, in 2007, she began her work as a researcher at P.J. Safarik University in Kosice. At the same time, she started her PhD studies at the University of Groningen, The Netherlands and joined the Kosice Institute for Society and Health. During her work at the university and in her PhD studies, she focused on the analysis of age-specific and disease-specific mortality in Slovak districts and in small regional towns.

Moreover, she was a team member on European projects (EUROTHINE, INEQICITIES), a member of the Multi-Disciplinary Working Group on Social Inequities in Health in the Slovak Republic (in collaboration with WHO) and participated in selected programs as a consultant in the sphere of the demographic structure of the population.
