Acknowledgements

This thesis is especially dedicated to my wife Arezou Oliveira, my father, my mother, and my sister for all their love and support, as I have previously mentioned. A special thought to my grandmother. Avó Glória, I know that you are there somewhere taking good care of us. It is also a moment of inner happiness to thank and express my gratitude to those who made this Ph.D. possible. I thank Prof. Gregory Ashworth who made his support available in a number of ways, including a trip to northern Portugal in July 2014. Prof. Gregory Ashworth has encouraged me to write down unique, meaningful and clear ideas, to think beyond the normative and mainstream statements. I would like to express my gratefulness for all your energy, your guidance, even in those times you were feeling less energetic. A very warm thank to Angela Ashworth for sharing with us words of enthusiasm towards life always with a smile and happiness. I also thank from the bottom of my heart Prof. Gert de Roo who has always encouraged me to discover alternative ways of thinking within the spatial planning literature and bringing them to the thesis, in a smart and constructive way, as well as for his constant interest in my research and the endless intellectual support. I also acknowledge the great support I have received from the Graduate School and Dep. of Spatial Planning of the Faculty of Spatial Sciences, particularly from Alida Meerburg, Sarah Oude Brunink, Diana Bruinewoud and Professor Inge Hutter. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my ex-office mates Tino Buchholz and Britta Restemeyer with whom I have spent fantastic working hours in a perfect knowledge-exchange environment and mutual support. I have fuelled a lot of ideas with your wise discourse. With all mindfulness I thank Ashwin Ittoo who has been an inspiration and a source of motivation - I will remember with nostalgia the long runs, the bicycle rides and the spinning marathons at ACLO, as well as the words of encouragement and hope he has shared with me. I also extend my gratefulness to my department colleagues, Chris Zuidema, Adji Kusworo, Karina Castro, Bernal Morales Rodriguez, Katharina Gugerell, Ward Rauws, Elen-Maarja Trelle, Stefan Hartman, Uma Puppachai, Niels Heeres, Mufty Hasanov, Taufiq Hidayat Putra, Mohamed Saleh, Ruiqian Li, Tim Busscher, Wendy Tan, Yang Zhang, Jing Wu, Steve Forrest, Cristina Ampatzidou, Mona Abdelwahab and Eva Heinen. I owe my appreciation and thankfulness to my colleagues Jasper Meeke, Marije Hamersma, Jessica de Boer, Ferry Van Kann, Melanie Bakema, Nienke Busscher, Jelmer Jeurig, Jasper Heslinga, Jannes Willems for their incredible support with the translation of the Dutch summary of this thesis, with the test defence and beyond them. You have brilliantly made this thesis possible. I owe my gratitude to a number of academics and place branding experts who have supported me with comments on early versions of my writings - very special thanks to Dr. Emese Panyk (co-author in Oliveira and Panyk, 2015), Prof. Kristof Van Assche, Prof. João Sarmiento, Prof. Artur Rosa Pires, José Filipe Torres, Martin Boisen and Samantha North for sharing their precious time with me, thus, helping me to reach another levels of understanding about place branding, spatial planning and northern Portugal. I also thank with all mindfulness my great friends Olga Pereira, Sérgio Ferreira and António Alves for their encouragement and guidance. Also a special thanks to my Portuguese friends in Groningen with whom I have spent good time, Joana Domingues, Silvia Vicente, Lionel Morgado, Ana Borges. Finally, I am indebted to those who accepted to be interviewed, thus contributing to my Ph.D. in a unique and irreplaceable way.
