

University of Groningen

Who cares?

Kamstra, Aafke

IMPORTANT NOTE: You are advised to consult the publisher's version (publisher's PDF) if you wish to cite from it. Please check the document version below.

Document Version

Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Publication date:

2017

Link to publication in University of Groningen/UMCG research database

Citation for published version (APA):

Kamstra, A. (2017). Who cares? Research into maintaining, strengthening, and expanding the informal social networks of people with profound intellectual and multiple disabilities. [Thesis fully internal (DIV), University of Groningen]. Rijksuniversiteit Groningen.

Copyright

Other than for strictly personal use, it is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

The publication may also be distributed here under the terms of Article 25fa of the Dutch Copyright Act, indicated by the "Taverne" license. More information can be found on the University of Groningen website: <https://www.rug.nl/library/open-access/self-archiving-pure/taverne-amendment>.

Take-down policy

If you believe that this document breaches copyright please contact us providing details, and we will remove access to the work immediately and investigate your claim.

Downloaded from the University of Groningen/UMCG research database (Pure): <http://www.rug.nl/research/portal>. For technical reasons the number of authors shown on this cover page is limited to 10 maximum.

About the author

Aafke Kamstra was born in Leeuwarden, the Netherlands in 1985 and raised in Beetsterzwaag. The author received her HAVO diploma from the Christelijke Scholengemeenschap Liudger in Drachten. She obtained a Bachelor in Physical Education (ALO) in 2006 and started working at an elementary school as a PE teacher. In 2007 she started her academic education at the department of Special Needs Education and Youth Care of the University of Groningen and obtained her masters degree in 2010. In the final year of her study she conducted research and worked as an intern at Fundashon Verriet, a care center for people with disabilities in Curacao, Dutch Antilles. In 2010 she started working as a researcher at the University of Groningen at the department of Special Needs Education and Youth Care. This research became the start of her PhD. In 2011 she combined her work at the university with a job as a psychologist (orthopedagoog) at 's Heeren Loo Opmaat, Bedum. Currently she still works here and will start with the post-master education of health care psychologist in September 2017.

