Acknowledgements

Writing this dissertation was a difficult task for me as an ambtenaar. It felt like an endless journey that sometimes left me with the question whether I could make it. Fortunately, I worked in the friendly and exciting atmosphere with a lot of support from colleagues from the Department of Sociology at the University of Groningen, and from the Interuniversity Center for Social Science Theory and Methodology (ICS). Without their help, I doubt that my dream of writing this dissertation would ever have come true. Praise be to God.

My sincere gratitude goes to my incredible team of supervisors: Rafael Wittek, Liesbet Heyse, and Marijtje van Duijn. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to complete this wonderful journey, for your encouragement and help to develop an overarching idea, translate it into theoretical mechanisms and select the appropriate statistical analysis. I also would like to thank the member of the reading committee, René Veenstra, Roel Bosker and Peer Scheepers for taking the time to read and comment on the thesis.

I also want to thank all members of the Sustainable Cooperation, Institutions and Organizations (SCIO) team (formerly the Work, Organization and Theory group/WOT) and all the colleagues from the ICS yeargroup 2012 (Nynke, Tomas, Marina). It was a pleasure to cooperate with wonderful people, who generously shared their knowledge and experiences during colloquia, ICS Courses and ICS Forum Days. I also have received a lot of support from staff and other colleagues at the ICS: Beau, Gijs, Gina, Chaim, Renske. My special thanks to the PhD-mentor Rie Bosman for generous help and guidance, to Saskia Simon for secretarial support, Monique, Gerda, and to Tomas Turner-Zwinkels for the Dutch Summary and his willingness to serve as my paranymph for the dissertation defense.

I also would like to extend my appreciation to the director of the Spirit Indonesia Groningen (SinGA), Ronald Holz hacker, supervisors and all members of SinGA (Pak Taufiq H. Putra, Mbak Suwatin, Pak Usman, Mbak Nureni, Mbak Mala, Mbak Laksmi, Mas Kus, Mbak Icha, Mas Tri, Mbak Titis, Mas Yoga, Mas Petrus, Mbak Isti) for the opportunities to discuss and share our first research ideas and help us settle in Groningen. I would especially like to thank those who have facilitated our stay in Groningen, Tim Zwaagstra, para pini sepuh and senior warga Indonesia in Groningen (Mas Archi-Tante Merry, Mbak Nunung, Uwak Asiyah-Om Menno, Om Rudie-Tante Sylvi, Om Yon-Tante Indah, Mbak Ari-Mas Herman, Om Kanda, Om Harry, Kang Iging-Mbak Desti), and all members of de Gromist, Pengajian Anak and the Indonesian Student Association in Groningen (PPIG). Special thanks to Mas Adhyat, Mas Pandji, Mas Didik-Mbak Rosel, Kang Acul, Mas Akbar, Mas Guntur, Bu Rini-Pak Asmoro, Kang Hegar, Mas Fika, Mas Ali Syariati, Mas Arif, Mas Ivan, and Mas Joko.

My study here would not have been possible without the permission and funding from the Ministry of National Development Planning/Bappenas, therefore, this is also a good opportunity to thank Pak Imron Bulkin, Bu Nina, Pak Subandi, Pak Slamet, Pak Rudi, Pak Yahya, Pak Taufik, Bu Yuke, Pak Guspika, Pak Amich, Pak Hadiat, Pak Edy and the whole SPIRIT crew. My special thanks also go to Ibu Suharti (Kemdikbud), Pak Bambang H. Wibisono (Atdikbud KBRI Den Haag), Pak Mamat (LP Maarif PB NU), Pak Maskuri (Majlis Dikdasmen Muhammadiyah), Pak Sukro Muhab (Jaringan Sekolah Islam Terpadu/JSIT) and all colleagues at the (former) Directorate for Education Bappenas (Mbak Endang, Mas Dimas, Mas Setyo, Mas Prapto, Mas Kalih, Kang Pepen, Mbak Erna).

The support of my family has been central for me, not only for writing this thesis, but for my life in general. My sincere thanks to my beloved Emak (alm) - Apa, Mama (alm) - Apa, and all our big family in Indonesia. And finally my dearest wife, Siti Rohmah Suryaningsih and my sweetheart kids: Ausie, Berli dan Qiya, thank you for being my true companion on this journey.
