About the author

Marijana Vujošević (Milosavljević) was born on 17 March 1979 in Novi Sad, Serbia. She studied philosophy at the University of Novi Sad and obtained the Serbian equivalent of a master's degree with a thesis on Husserl's critique of Descartes's and Kant's turn to the subject (for which she received the highest possible grade). In 2006, she moved to the Netherlands to study for a master's degree in History of Philosophy at Leiden University. In 2008, she graduated, Cum Laude, with the thesis "The Cognitive Function of Phantasia/Einbildungskraft: Imagination in Aristotle and Kant". In 2010, she completed a one-year master's teacher training programme in philosophy (in Dutch) at the University of Amsterdam. During and after this programme, she taught philosophy at a secondary school in Almere. She then began her PhD at the University of Groningen under the supervision of Professor Pauline Kleingeld. The dissertation research project was part of Kleingeld's NWO-funded project "Kant on Morality and Empirical Knowledge of Human Agency".
