Acknowledgments

I realize that writing this part is not easy! Words are not enough to express my gratefulness to many great people who were involved in this study and gave their valuable contribution for completing this thesis. For all of their kindness, I would like to give my humble acknowledgment.

First of all, I would like to thank the W.J. Kolff Institute which made this research project possible with the sandwich programme. This study was entirely funded by the University Medical Centre Groningen, The Netherlands.

I would like to express my deepest sincere gratitude to my first promotor Prof. dr. H.C. van der Mei for her guidance, insightful suggestions, excellent advice in each stage of the research and writing. Under your supervision, I learned a lot and I believe all of it was of great importance for my self-development and future as a researcher in academics. Bu Henny, at this moment, with these words, I like to thank you for all your support which I needed to finish my PhD project, particularly your decision to visit Indonesia, first with Pak Henk, and the second time alone. These moments were well chosen and were very effective in speeding up the progress of the writing process.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. dr. M.S. Cune, for his continuous support, invaluable assistance and patience. Pak Marco, thank you so much for your guidance and direction during research and writing. Although most of our discussions and communications were done via Skype, they were very effective and productive.

I am very grateful to Prof. dr. ir. H.J. Busscher for his excellent advice and precise solution for any kind of problem during my PhD project. Pak Henk, please accept my deepest gratitude for your attention and motivation in every step of my study. You have always given accurate corrections for all mistakes you discovered in my manuscripts.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

My sincere thanks to Dr. M. Rinastiti, MClintDent (endodontics) for directing me towards the ex vivo study in dental resin composite degradation. Mbak Tita, you opened my mind to the importance of this study and also helped me much to understand this topic.

I am pleased to honor Prof. dr. W. Siswomihardjo who gave never-ending encouragement since I started this research project. Bu Bundi, you always remind me to be grateful for all the gifts of God at every stage of life, even in a hard situation. Your guidance, motivation, and wise-advice gave an enormous contribution to my study.

I would like to express my deep appreciation to the reading committee: Prof. dr. Y. Ren, Prof. dr. F. Abbas, Prof. dr. Marsetyawan HNE Soesatyo. Thank you so much for your time and effort to evaluate and assess my thesis.

I would like to thank the former and present Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry, Universitas Gadjah Mada, drg. Erwan Sugiatno, MS. Sp.Pros(K). Ph.D. and Dr. drg. Ahmad Syaify, Sp.Perio(K). for giving me a chance and time to finish my study.

I also express my sincere thanks to the former and present Head Department of Dental Biomedical Science, drg. Triana Wahyu Utami, MDSc. Ph.D. and drg. Ika Dewi Ana, M.Kes. Ph.D., and all staff members for their support in my study.

I would like to thank all volunteers who participated in this study. I really appreciate your full cooperation and endless commitment.

My sincere thanks go to Joop de Vries for his expertise in XPS and giving me assistance in roughness measurement. I would also like to thank Jelly Atemasmit and Willy de Haan-Visser for providing me the DGGE analysis. Next to that, thank mas Ari Jimmi, mbak Bunga, mbak Anik, mbak Linda for your full support in the laboratory work in Indonesia.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would also like to thank W.T.J. Kloppenberg and J.A. Heidema-Kol. Dear Wya and Ina, thank you so much for your help in financial and administrative affairs during my study either when I was in Groningen or in Indonesia.

For my paranymphs, Aryan and Jelly, special thank for both of you for your willingness to participate in my Ph.D. ceremony and helping me to distribute the thesis.

My special thanks for Marieke van de Lagemaat for her kind excellent-translation of the English summary into Dutch.

My special thanks also for Tante Milly and family, Adyat and family, for their kind providing me temporary residence while staying in Groningen. I would also thank my friends mbak Soetji, Yuda, Niar, mas Adhi, mbak Lia, mas Yoyok, Afif, Yusro thank for your friendship and sharing the nice moments when I stayed in Groningen. Sharing with friends is effectively stress releasing and recharging for new energy in order to continue the journey.

Dear Ririn and Tian, my lovely wife and handsome boy, your endless support, faith in me for the last couple of years which made me stronger and encouraged me to touch the finish line. Not only your steadfast support but also for the family time you both gave me. Thank God, having both of you in my life is a true blessing.

Dear Bapak and Ibu, my parents, your constant prayer, good wishes and unconditional love is the power to struggle in every situation. I am blessed to receive all of that through the entire study.
