“What about the children? Oh, we see them on television, we read about them in the papers, and we do so with a broken heart. Their fate is always the most tragic, inevitably. When adults wage war, children perish. We see their faces, their eyes. Do we hear their pleas? Do we feel their pain, their agony?”

Elie Wiesel - The Perils of Indifference
(Millennium Lecture on April 12, 1999)
