ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Katelijne van Emmerik-van Oortmerssen was born in 1978 in Ede, the Netherlands. After cum laude graduation from secondary school (Bussum, 1997), she studied Medicine at the VU University in Amsterdam and completed her medical internship in 2004. She then worked in several medical fields (psychiatry, neurology, public health). In 2009 she started working on a PhD program on the prevalence, diagnostic assessment and treatment of ADHD in SUD patients at Arkin in a collaboration with the Academic Medical Center in Amsterdam (AMC) and the University Medical Center Groningen (UMCG). She combined this with a residency in psychiatry at GGZ Ingeest from 2013 onwards. Katelijne is married to Arnold van Emmerik, with whom she has two children.
