Statements

1. Pottery production shows continuity more than hiatus.
2. Territory exploitation was already developed before Sybaris was settled.
3. Rich indigenous women wore astonishing dazzling caps.
4. Prehistory of South Italy suffers of a classical archaeology bias.
5. Crop rotation was practiced already since BR1.
6. Agricultural, livestock jobs and craft activities were all regulated and complement each other following a rigid time-table.
7. In the Final Bronze Age the territory was fully developed and exploited from the mountains to the marsh land.
8. Sybaris takes a pivotal role in the Region's trade overseas from its beginning.
