ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Alhamdulillah rabbi alamin, It is a remarkable achievement, that I've arrived at this stage.

Thank you for all the prayers from my mother Ros S. Ali and father Sardjito Sarikaya and my two younger brothers Moh. Fikri Maarif and Muh. Ramlan Budikusuma (and his wife, Fitriyanti Zaman).

Dear Prof. Maarten J. Postma, Monday, 3 March 2014, is the day we met the first time. This is where my “timer” started, where I only had about 1460 days to complete the Ph.D. To be honest, from that day on I felt “fear”, whether or not I was able to fulfill the responsibility given by Indonesia through a LPDP scholarship.

I would like to put my gratitude using the “FC GRONINGEN” abbreviation.

Thank you for the Fruitful discussions. In addition to our research discussions, you were also willing to listen to my stories, academic as well as non-academic. We had for instance academic discussions about my participation in several courses. Pharmacoeconomic was the first course I attended (8–28 May 2014). During our discussion, I told you that I was “nervous” whether the exam score would reach 5.5. In addition to praying, I made a summary of Pharmacoeconomics (including mind mapping), so I could understand this topic (being the main focus of my research).

Prof. Postma, I always remember what you said back then: “feeling nervous or fear is necessary because one will be motivated to be better prepared for any activities.” Another story was the support you gave me when I told you that I had failed on one of the courses, and you wisely said that “it is a part of the game, as a promoter I will always be there to help you.” This indicates that you are a person who Cares.

Next word is Generous. This is reflected in our non-academic discussions, for example, you permitted me to celebrate “Eid Al-Fitr (Ramadhan and Hari Raya Idul Fitri)” with my family in Banggai Laut (a remote area). During the “back to hometown” period, I always took advantage by also collecting data for our research.

Today, while I'm writing this “acknowledgment,” a colleague from Indonesia contacted me because they wanted to invite you to be one of the speakers in an international seminar in Bandung (8-9 July 2018). Their reason, besides having read our publication about DDS17 Bahasa Indonesia (“BAS” is a word that will remind you of this publication), they also consider that you have a “worldwide Reputation”.

Open-minded, I learned from you to be a good listener and observer.

My preliminary research plan was about “the costs of T2DM in Indonesia”, but due to some obstacles, you finally agreed with the research idea about distress and health-related quality of life in Indonesian type 2 diabetes mellitus outpatients. You are always open to new ideas that I conveyed. Through you, I also learned to have “a high sense of Nationalism.”

To be honest, I like your passion that always gives support to FC Groningen and the Dutch National Football Team. It is perfected by your attitude that deeply appreciates the cultural differences of other nations. You have proved to be willing to accept students from all over the world. You have Inspired others.

Notably, ... this word is always present in every manuscript we have written together. In my opinion, all your students will agree with me.

Genius. You always find the right word/phrase to communicate our research. The word/phrase, looks “simple” but is very detailed.

Ergo ... as well as the word “notably,” this word is almost always there every time you give us input on our manuscripts.

The Nice words you always gave to me, which encouraged me to be more creative. Through this situation I understand that one’s success is the balance of all the positive things in our life. Thank you also for all the opportunities you gave to me to participate in several international seminars/conferences. The most memorable international seminars/conferences was when I became “1st best oral presenter” at International Conference on Global Health (ICGH) being held on August 14-16, 2017 in Jakarta (you also were one of the international speakers at this conference). To be honest, I felt very proud of being a representative of the University of Groningen. Moreover you, mb. Lusi and Tia were also attending my presentation.

Dear Dr. Paul, F.M. Krabbe,

July 2, 2014, was the day when I first emailed you. At that time, Maarten asked me to consult you for the “DDS17 Indonesia” analysis. July 8, 2014, was the first time we met and after I explained the instrument we wanted to validate, you suggest me to read the book “Factor analysis (Gorsuch, 1983)”. At that time it popped up in my mind that “the age of this book is the same as my age.” After searching and contacting the university library, I finally found this book. Next, I read and tried to understand (including the making of a summary of factor analysis). “To be honest, the more I tried, the less I understood about factor analysis,” until I finally read some other books for comparison. The result, “I got more confused.” About a week later, we discussed again this “factor analysis”. During this meeting, I brought the book “Factor analysis (Gorsuch, 1983)” as well as some notes of my learning outcomes. As a result of this second discussion, I became more familiar (at least regarding analysis with SPSS) and you recommended me to read your writing about factor analysis (when your book was in the process of publishing). At this occasion, I would like to state that “to be honest”, I understood more about factor analysis after I have read your writing.”

From you, I learned “how to transfer knowledge”. Every time we discussed, you always provided a “systematic solution,” which was helping a lot.

So far, I feel that our common thing is that we are equally interested in “visualizing” science into something “eye-catching”. Hopefully, we agree that good science is understandable by the targeted audience and delivered with simple, detailed and entertained communication techniques.

I also remember when you helped me answering the audience questions about our poster “From visualization to understanding” (thanks, Qi, for this title). It was my first experience participating in the Euro-QoL Group meeting.

Paul, thank you for being my co-promoter. Thank you for taking the time to discuss our work.

Dear Dr. Jarir Atthobari,

Thank you for guiding me since my master’s education at the Faculty of Medicine UGM. Me as well as my parents are very grateful that Mr. Jarir has been willing to recommend me to Prof. Maarten J. Postma to pursue a Ph.D. education.

In fact, when Mr. Jarir is offer his recommendations, I was accepted as a doctoral student at the Faculty of Medicine UGM. Mr. Jarir asked me to contact LPDP Scholarship from the Ministry of Finance, Republic of Indonesia. Alhamdulillah, on the 3rd day PK 3 LPDP (a leadership training),

I received a letter of acceptance from Prof. Maarten J. Postma.

Mr. Jarir has a “unique way” of transferring the knowledge he has. As far as I know, his judgment is not only based on his academic ability, but a soft-skill person becomes a critical determinant of career success. Thank you for all the motivations you have given me so far.

I would like to express my appreciation to the Indonesia Endowment Fund for Education (LPDP) for the scholarship which has given me the opportunity to continue my PhD education at the University of Groningen. I would also like to thank the President Director of the LPDP which in 2013 approved my request to change universities from Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta, to Groningen University.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the members of the assessment committee: Prof. dr. Bob Wilffert, Prof. dr. Erik Buskens, Prof. dr. Iwan Dwiprahasto, PhD, thank you very much for your willingness to read and your kind consideration to give input and assess my thesis. I do hope that you enjoyed reading it.

I also acknowledge the opposition (corona): Prof. dr. Katja Taxis, Dr. Christine Fenenga, Jaap Koot, MD, MBA.

I would like to thank to all my co-authors: Qi Cao, Lusiana Rusdi Idrus, Antoinette D.I. van Asselt, Fredrick Dermawan Purba, Dyah Aryani Perwitasari, Prof. John MF Adam, Ari Probandari, PhD, Abdul Khairul Rizki Purba, dr. C.C.M (Nynke) Schuiling-Veninga.

My deep gratitude goes to the Governor of Central Sulawesi Province (Drs H. Longki Djanggola, M.Si), the Provincial Secretary of Central Sulawesi Province (Drs. H. Moh.

Hidayat Lamakarate, M.Si), the Banggai Laut Regent (Drs. H. Wenny Bukamo) and Vice-Regent (Dra. Hj. Tuty Hamid), the Banggai Laut District Regional Secretary (Drs. H. Furquanuddin Masulili, MM), Chairman of the Parliament (Mr. Richard Brynwerd Schwaner Manuas) and the Director of Banggai Public Hospital (Muhammad Mamang, MD, MM).

In early 2013, when I was busy completing my Master of Hospital Management thesis, I got information about LPDP scholarships from Gadjah Mada University in Yogyakarta. After reading the terms of the LPDP scholarship, I realized that what I needed was the permission from the Director of RSUD Banggai Public Hospital for an extension of my study period. Alhamdulillah, I was very lucky because at that time Bunda (Mrs) Ratnasari Dewi Turungku helped to communicate with Abdi Kamindang, MD, MPH who was then the director at the hospital where I was assigned. I am indebted to bunda Ratna and dr. Abdi for their help and permission.

I would like to thank Nana, Selly, Adin, Amri, Winda, Eny, Hellen, Ikhsan, mb Mala, mas Hendra, Alan Titi, mb Christine, Sari, Permana, and Maratun for taking time as my research assistants. During the data collection process, several times we had to depart for the research location at around 5 a.m. (after dawn prayers). Once, when data collection in Wonosari had been completed and we returned to Yogya, we were all tired and got sleepy. To be honest, I also felt the same but I tried to cover it up, so we all remained enthusiastic. As a result, we arrived in Yogya around 9 p.m. and went straight back to our homes, took a rest and eventually we all slept for about 12 hours. Until now, I still remember that day for our hard work in obtaining the data.

My gratitude also goes to Dr. dr. Anang Otoluwa, MPPM, Prof. Dr. dr. H. Bambang Purwanto, Sp.PD, PD-KGEH, FINASIM, dr. Supriyanto Kertodarsono, Sp.PD-KEMD, FINASIM, dr. Ernita Kamindang, dr. Priyatni Tjatjo, dr. Metania Osyca Fuisari, Susanti, SKM, Sia SKM, dr. Eva Niamuzisilawati, Sp.PD. M.Kes, FINASIM, dr. Makiyatul Munawarroh, dr. Ikrimah Nisa Utami, Pa Leman, ibu Dwi, for their assistance during the data collection process.

Special thanks to all the family doctors (dr. Harsana, dr. Henny and dr. Happy), primary health care facilities (Puskesmas Kampung Baru, Puskesmas Simpang, Persadia Surakarta, Prolanis BPJS) and hospitals (RS Moewardi Surakarta, RS Ibnu Sina Makassar, RSUD Banggai, BLUD RS Sekarwangi Sukabumi,) that have helped our study.

Many thanks to: Prof. DR. dr. Pradana Soewondo, Sp.PD-KEMD.

I am particularly grateful to my friends of PK3 LPDP for all the support, especially my friends in the 'Pandawa Lima' group: Ratu Tisya (Secretary General of PSSI), Joko, Dodi, Wulan, and Ara. Hopefully you still remember the songs and poems that we presented during the third intake of the leadership program (PK3). The show began with me in charge of singing the poem 'Even though I am going away ... you will not disappear from my heart. My land that I love, I am proud of you'. I always remember after our show, all the fellow awardees gave a standing ovation. It was a great performance.

My special thanks are extended to the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia for the Kingdom of the Netherlands: the Ambassador of Indonesia (Duta Besar LBPP Bpk. I Gusti Wesaka Puja), Prof. Dr. Bambang Hari Wibisono, mb Sofiah Agustina, mas

Deni Wiliadi, dd Noval Devian Rafael, & dd Zara Areesha Defiana as well as all the staff of the Embassy.

I would like to express my appreciation to all my teachers:

Pharmacy faculty, Universitas Muslim Indonesia, Makassar: Prof. Tadjuddin Naid, pa Rachmat Kostman, K Rusli, K Mira, K Asni, K Faradiba, ibu Mihra.

Universitas Indonesia Depok: Prof. Yahdiana Harahap, Prof. Harmita.

Universitas Gadjah Mada: Prof. Mustofa, Prof. Iwan Dwiprahasto, Prof. Adi Utarini, Prof. dr. Laksono, ibu Indwiani Astuti, PhD, ibu Dr. Erna Kristin, Apt, ibu Dr. Trimurti Andayani, Apt, ibu Dwi, PhD, Dr. Eti, Dr.dr. Andreaستا Meliala, dr. Riris Andono, PhD, mb Putu, mb Trisasi.

PTE2 friends:

I could not have succeeded without my invaluable friends: Pieter, my office roommate for helping me correct the acknowledgment on Maarten, 'the FG Groningen part' and also the part about Paul and Jarir, to Lusi for taking the time for proofreading, also as translator; to Tia, when sometimes we recorded songs via smartphone to temporarily divert our concentration from the manuscript to 'youtube karaoke'. Thanks for the very nice time.

I would also like to thank Jurjen for helping me during my time in Groningen (helping me contact Customer Service of Q-Buss because I forgot my bag on the bus). Also to Wandy, Qi, Demy, Adriana, Christiaan (Thank for helping me in making a tutorial video for this book cover. The video helped the printer company to understand my idea), Simon (remember the 'spicy noodle challenge?'), Sofa, Afifa, Ivan, Neily, Auliya, Akbar, Yuan Yuan, mb Ira, Tanja, Khairul, Hellen, Linda, Lan, Didik, Bianca, Kun, Maarten, Floriaan, Bert, Jens, Jugo, Doti, Nuhoda Aldarij, Orn, Nynke (Thanks for your support), Matthys (Hopefully we can play badminton again), Thea (Thank you for all the brilliant ideas), and Tessa Postma (Thanks to his squash training, you are a very good teacher like your father).

Thank you Tim Zwaagstra (I remember how we met the first time in Universitas Gadjah Mada Yogyakarta and I asked you about the 'housing subsidy for PhD student'); Truus van Ittersum (for kind advise me about thesis preparation); Ms Annette Korringa (assisting me with the administrative issue); Aukje van der Zee (helping me to make appointments with Paul and Erik).

Special thanks to mb Awalia and mas Yayok for your kind advice. We met at the UMCG cafeteria and you helped me a lot, especially in research financing procedures in Indonesia.

Planetenlaan friends,
I am grateful to mb Ira, mas Adhyat, mb Ela, mb Nur, pa Tji Kok, mas Tri, Dina, bu Ima, mb Vera, mas Lutfi, Habibi, mas Roni, and Adjie for all your help.

Special thanks to Habibi and May (@masyithambarwati), 'you capture my defense day so perfectly and beautifully'

Thanks to Uwak who always encouraged me every time we met (via fb also). Thanks to Jeroen Buma for all his help while I was in Groningen. Thanks also to Rini and Asmoro who have provided Indonesian food with student prices. Hopefully someday we can meet again.

Fellow LPDP awardees in Groningen, may we all be able to complete our obligations and return to Indonesia to devote the knowledge we have gained to our beloved country.

Thanks to mb Sinta Kristanti, who always reminded us of our 'qualitative research' discussion in Roermond, at lunch after we went shopping. I am sure that someday mb Sinta will become an expert in qualitative research in Indonesia. Keep it up Sinta. Thanks also for the knowledge of museums that have been shared during our discussions. Also, thanks to Delphine and mas Fean for your support.

Many thanks to Ian Forbes (indtnz@gmail.com) who has helped me as a proofreader in the thesis.
