Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all interviewees for how generously they shared their time with me and for how patiently and thoughtfully they answered my questions.

I would like to thank my supervisors in no particular order: Jaap de Wilde, Jana Hönke and Caitlin Ryan. I am grateful to all of them for their patience, support and guidance. I am grateful to Jaap for his encouragement and support. I would like to thank Jana for seeing the big picture when I could not, and for her calm rationality which always grounded me. I would like to thank Caitlin for her many challenging questions, for her reliability, and for her guidance with regards to research ethics and during the field research process. Furthermore, I am deeply grateful to Caitlin for the many conversations about the PhD and beyond it.

I would like to thank Carola Onderdelinden for the many inspiring conversations, her insights and her generous support.

I would like to thank Jan Pospisil for all the challenging debates and his valuable insights. Without you I would not have started this journey, and your advice was vital to my perseverance.

I thank Marieke Wubbolts for her support and advice.

I would like to thank all my colleagues as well as fellow and former PhD Candidates – in particular: Elisabeth Schweiger, Sarah Katz-Lavigne, Ana Flamind, Agnese Bellina, Kim Smeenk, Annabelle de Heus, Ruby de Vos, Nikolas Gäckle, Magdalena König, Renske de Vos, Tancrede Pagès, Chris Vloedveld, Maarten Meijer, Andreas Nohr, David Shim, Christoph Humrich, and Xavier Guillaume.

I would like to thank my friends and family for their unfailing support: Martin and Karoline Gruber, Martin Gruber, Verena Gappmaier, Moritz Ruhs, Rosemarie Fuchshofer, Ehrentraud Wimmer, Julia Weilharter, Katharina Müllner, Birgit Aschenberger and Caroline Sommeregger.
